l'Association des Auclair d'Amérique*

Friday, August 5 :

- We would enjoy your company at 5 PM at the restaurant:
L'Entrecôte Saint-Jean, 1080, rue Saint-Jean, Québec for a welcome cocktail followed by a supper.

Saturday, August 6 :

- At 10 AM, our day begins with our Annual General Assembly held at the Musée des Augustines (77, des Remparts, Québec), the home of the Augustinian Sisters of Quebec. This meeting will be followed by a conference regarding our ancestor, Suzanne Aubineau, who was one of the filles du roi, or Kings daughters, these courageous and persevering women merit are complete admiration.

- At NOON, we will have a friendship lunch and a great time for a reunion. We will certainly have much to share.
- At 1:30 PM, we offer you a guided tour of the Museum (in French). We are privileged to have access to a wealth of information on the lives of Pierre Auclair's children. Indeed, two of his sons became priests, and five of his daughters embraced religious life. Four of them also became sisters in the Augustinian congregation.
- At 2:30 PM, feel free to visit the location of the site of the Fêtes de la Nouvelle-France, or the festival celebrating the establishment of New France who's activities will be happening at the same time.
